A Walk to Food Truck Paradise in Long Wharf

Thursday, July 25, 2019 - 4:30pm to 7:00pm
New Haven, CT

We know you've seen the line of food trucks on your way in and out of New Haven, but have you actually ventured over to Long Wharf to eat there? Well now's your chance! Join us for a walk to Food Truck Paradise where you can feast on food truck delights and enjoy the view of the Long Island Sound. The walk from OISS is about 2 miles, so make sure to wear comfortable walking shoes and dress for the weather. You will be responsible for any food that you'd like to purchase, and we recommend bringing cash along with your card, as some of the food trucks might be cash only. Once everyone has their food, we can enjoy our meals together on the lawn overlooking the water. While the walk might be a little long, the food will be worth it, we promise! Note: Free, but please register to attend. Open to the Yale community. In case of rain, we will postpone the walk and email everyone that is registered, so please list your correct email in the registration form.
