Diversity at Work: LGBTQI+ Panel

Wednesday, March 27, 2019 - 5:30pm to 7:00pm

The OISS, the Office of Career Strategy, and the Dean’s Advisory Council on LGBTQI+ Affairs are co-hosting the next panel of the Diversity at Work series for the academic year with a central theme on LGBTQI+ individuals in the workplace. Join us as Yale alumni and current staff discuss their experiences navigating the job market, making sense of office culture and expectations, as well as other challenges in a variety of work settings. There will be ample time for Q&A and food will be provided.

Panelists include:
- Dr. Junjie Guo - Junjie obtained his PhD in Neuroscience from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine and is now an Assistant Professor in Yale’s Department of Neuroscience
- Dr. Rachel Dreyer - Rachel obtained her PhD in Medicine (Epidemiology) from the University of Adelaide and is now an Assistant Professor in Yale’s Department of Emergency Medicine
- Daniel Cress - Daniel obtained his Masters of Science in Managerial Communication from Northwestern University and is now the Director of Marketing at the Yale School of Drama/Yale Repertory Theatre

Note: This event is open to all Yale students and postdocs. Please RSVP in order to attend.

Source URL: https://oiss.yale.edu/calendar/events/diversity-at-work-lgbtqi-panel