Uma's Evening at the Yale Rep: Cadillac Crew

Friday, April 26, 2019 - 6:30pm to 10:30pm

Reception at OISS (421 Temple): 6:30pm
Play at Yale Repertory Theater (1120 Chapel St): 8:00pm

We are excited to invite international scholars, students, and their families to join us at the Yale Rep for the production of Cadillac Crew. We will host a light reception at the OISS at 6:30pm and walk over to the show as a group at 7:30pm. You also have the option of coming directly to the show.

Synopsis:
On the day of a much anticipated speech by Rosa Parks during the height of the Civil Rights Movement, four activists working in a Virginia civil rights office wonder whether the proclamation of equality amongst mankind includes women. With remarkable insight and unexpected humor, Cadillac Crew reclaims the stories of the forgotten leaders who blazed the trail for desegregation and women's rights and asks: when will the world be ready to embrace women in all their capacity.

We hope you will join us for this incredible performance.

NOTE: You can exchange the Eventbrite ticket receipts for the actual tickets at the OISS reception on the day of the play. If you are unable to come to the reception, please email Uma and arrange to have it exchanged at the OISS front desk during business hours. Please note that this play might not be suitable for young children.

Questions? Please contact Uma at uma.shankar@yale.edu [1].