Uma's Evening at the Yale Rep: Father Comes Home From The Wars

Wednesday, March 28, 2018 - 6:30pm to 11:00pm

Reception at OISS (421 Temple): 6:30pm
Play at University Theater (222 York Street): 8:00pm

Due to weather, our original date was postponed for the show. However we are happy to now open up a few more tickets for the Yale Rep's production of "Father Comes Home From the Wars, Part 1, 2 & 3" on Wednesday, March 28th at 8.00pm at University Theatre. We will host a light reception at the OISS at 6:30pm and walk over to the play as a group at 7:30pm. You also have the option of coming directly to the play.

Synopsis: In the astonishing first installment of Pulitzer Prize winner Suzan-Lori Parks's new American Odyssey, set over the course of the Civil War, Hero is offered his freedom from slavery in exchange for joining his master in the ranks of the Confederacy. Father Comes Home From the Wars, Parts 1, 2 & 3 is a devastatingly beautiful epic new work filled with music, wit, and exquisite lyricism. Please note that it contains coarse language.

NOTE: Tickets for pick up will be available starting Monday, March 26th at the front desk of the OISS. Please exchange your Eventbrite ticket receipts for the actual tickets before the show.

If you are not coming to the reception, please let Uma know by emailing her at uma.shankar@yale.edu [1].
