Virtual - Navigating the Job Search & Workplace Culture in the U.S.

Wednesday, April 15, 2020 - 5:00pm to 6:30pm

We have moved this career panel online via Zoom. See dial in details below.

OCS and OISS invite international students and scholars to join us for the evening to learn about how to navigate the job search (academic or non-academic) and workplace culture in the U.S. In celebration of Yale’s 50WomentatYale150 celebration, this panel will be composed of three talented women at Yale who will share their professional journey’s and offer advice on how to navigate the process.

Panelist Bios:

Dr. Rachel Dreyer: Assistant Professor at the Yale University School of Medicine (Department of Emergency Medicine). She obtained a PhD from the University of Adelaide in 2013 in Epidemiology and Clinical Research.

Konstantza Popova: Strategic Sourcing Manager at Yale Procurement. She has a BS & MS in International Business, and over 15 years of global experience sourcing wide variety of goods and services for companies like IKEA and Procter & Gamble.

Estella Barbosa de Souza: 6th year PhD student in the Physics Department. She is transitioning to a career in consulting at the Boston Consulting Group.

Note: Open to Yale international graduate and professional students and postdocs.
