Working in the U.S.

J-2 Status

Obtaining a Work Permit in the U.S. on a J-2 Visa

Please see our resources for family members of Yale students [1] or scholars [2] for more information and details.

Resources for Finding a Job

After obtaining an Employment Authorization Card, here are a couple of suggestions and resources for finding a job. This is not an exhaustive list as there are many types of employment you can get in New Haven.

- Need a job-seeker support group? Consider joining the ISPY Job Hunters group [3].
- Do you have language skills that you’d like to put to use? Consider private tutoring at a place such as Aux 3 Pommes [4], or through the Yale Center for Language Study [5].
- If you’d like to explore the possibility of working for Yale, check out Yale University’s Employment Portal [6].
- There are other employment portals for on and off-campus work in New Haven [7].
- Another valuable resource for job seekers is New Haven Works [8].

F-2 Status

Individuals in F-2 status may not work in the U.S. Please see the F-2 Status for Spouses, Partners & Children page [9] for more information.
