Applying for CPT

General Application Process

1. Contact OISS to evaluate your eligibility for CPT.
2. If all eligibility requirements are met, then you may create and submit an online CPT Request in OISS Connect. You can find the link to create a CPT request below in the section that applies to you.
3. Be prepared to attach documentation of your employment agreement (could be a letter or a contract). You must submit your CPT request before your CPT begins.
4. A new form I-20 will be issued denoting the employer and the dates authorized on page two. You can present this new I-20, along with your passport and I-94 record as proof of employment authorization to your employer.
5. Apply for a Social Security Number [1] if you do not have one already.

Applying for CPT is essential for the development of their dissertation. Scan this documentation and send it to Dean Allegra di Bonaventura [8]. Send an electronic recommendation request through your OISS connect application to Dean Allegra di Bonaventura at GSASadministrativedean@yale.edu [8]. The Dean will review this documentation and if approved they will attach the forms to your electronic recommendation in OISS Connect.

Yale College Students

You need to do two things to apply for CPT based on enrollment in PRAC 471 (you can submit them simultaneously, but we need both the proposal approval and CPT request submission before we can issue your I-20):

- You must complete a Project Proposal that needs to be approved by your DUS and Derek Webster (Senior Associate Director for Creative Careers & PRAC 471 Instructor of Record). Please complete the necessary information and submit your proposal for PRAC 471 here [9]. This dynamic form will be automatically forwarded to your DUS and to Derek Webster for approval, so you do not need to contact them unless there is an issue. Once your DUS and Derek Webster approve your proposal, you will be notified and OISS will receive a copy of the approval of your enrollment in PRAC 471. Important Note: Derek Webster is only the course instructor for PRAC 471, so all questions related to the project proposal form or CPT should NOT be directed to him, but to your designated OISS adviser, Ozan Say. You should only contact Derek Webster related to specific questions about the course itself.
- If you would like to download an approved version of your project proposal, please follow these steps:
  2. Go to My Forms > Forms History (upper right)
  3. Under Forms History will be a list of all Form Submissions, click the PDF icon or HTML for the Form Submission you wish to view/download/save/print.

Status – There are different types of Form Statuses found under Forms History and your form should be under one of these two categories:

i. Pending – A completed form submission in Pending queue.
ii. Processed – A completed form submissions in Processed queue

- You must also submit the Yale College Student CPT Request Form [11]. Important Note: Please only click this link once. If you are returning to work on your request, log in to https://connect.oiss.yale.edu [6] to edit your pending request on your profile page.

Note: If you are in Energy Studies, Education Studies, Human Rights Studies, Global Health Studies, Grand Strategy Program, or Yale Journalism Initiative, please contact your adviser Ozan Say first to discuss eligibility for CPT based on your program participation.

Divinity School Students

Only students pursuing a MDiv or MAR are eligible for CPT for the following courses:
