FAQs

(For F-1 Students) What counts as proof of employment?

Written verification from your employer or the for-service fellowship sponsor which includes:

- the nature of the employment or fellowship
- number of hours (if possible)
- the date employment is expected to begin
(For F-1 Students) How do I get this proof of employment?

- Yale College - email the Student Employment Office.
- Masters and Professional Students - email your school or the Student Employment Office. (Note: If you are an MA student and a TA in GSAS, then please contact the Teaching Fellow Program [13] for an employment letter)
- PhD Students - All PhD students are eligible to apply for a social security number. Print a copy of your letter of admission to meet this requirement.

What should I bring with me to the Social Security Office?

This depends on your visa status, so you should check our page on How to Apply for an SSN [14] for details. However, everyone will need to bring the following:

- SS-5 - you fill out and print
- Your passport
- Your I-94 record - you print
- Your immigration document (I-20, DS-2019, etc.) - you print
- Letter verifying your employment eligibility and visa status:
  - Non-PhDs: OISS emails you when this letter is ready. You must print it out and bring it to the OISS office to get signed.
  - PhDs: you can print this letter yourself in OISS Connect. See the Required Documents section above for instructions.

Can I use the letter from OISS at other Social Security Offices?

Even though the letter from OISS that confirms your Yale related immigration status and employment eligibility is addressed to the New Haven Social Security Administration, it will still suffice if you apply at other Social Security offices.

How can I get a SSN ineligibility letter for the DMV?

You must still see the SSA in order to receive this letter. You do not need the letter from OISS verifying your employment eligibility and visa status, a SS-5, or proof of employment (for F-1 students), but you will still need the other documents normally required. You can walk-in to their office, no need for an appointment.

When/how will I get the necessary letter from OISS?

Obtain and print a letter confirming your Yale related immigration status and employment eligibility from OISS.

- Everyone except PhD Students - Request this letter from OISS, then bring it to the OISS office to be signed.
  1. Fill out this form to request a letter [9]. Please submit your request at least 5 business days prior to when you plan on going to the SSA.
  2. Once we confirm your eligibility, we will email you the unsigned letter.
  3. Print this letter and bring it into the OISS office (421 Temple St) during walk-in hours [10] to be signed. Please note that you will not be able to print the letter at the OISS office, you must print it ahead of time.
• PhD Students - You can print this letter yourself in OISS Connect, then get it signed:

  5. Bring the printed document with you to your New Student orientation, or to the OISS office (421 Temple St) [10] during walk-in hours.

After the appointment, how long until I receive my SSN card?

This depends on the SSA and is unfortunately out of our control. The current time is 2-3 weeks, but we have heard of instances in which it takes in excess of 5-6 weeks to receive the card, especially during busy times of the year and holidays. If you have any questions about this we recommend contacting the SSA directly or checking your status on their website [15].

What do I need to do after I receive my SSN card? Do I have to give OISS my SSN?

You do not need to give your SSN to OISS, and should never email your SSN or a copy of your card.

Students should report their SSN in person to their registrar:

- Yale College and Graduate School students can do this at 246 Church St
- Professional School students should visit your own school registrars

Faculty and staff should report their SSN in person to the Employee Service Center at 221 Whitney Avenue.

What should I do if I have any questions?

Please contact Alina Nevins [16] and include ‘SSA’ in the subject line.
