What is a Form 8843 and Who Must File One?

Form 8843 is not a U.S. income tax return. It is an informational statement required by the IRS for nonresidents for tax purposes. It should be submitted for every nonresident tax payer present in the U.S. at any point during the previous calendar year, including spouses, partners, and children.

If you are not sure whether you are a nonresident for tax purposes, please read this section to find out more [1].

Nonresident Tax Filers

- If you are a nonresident tax filer with U.S. source income and are using Sprintax [2] to file your tax return, your Form 8843 will be automatically generated and included in the forms that Sprintax prepares for your filing.
- If you are preparing your 1040NR form yourself without using a tax software, you must also include a Form 8843.

Resident Tax Filers

- If you are considered a resident for tax purposes, you are not required to file Form 8843.

Who Should Complete ONLY Form 8843?

If you are a nonresident tax filer, and had NO U.S. source income in 2024, you only need to complete the Form 8843 to fulfill your federal tax filing obligation. Continue reading to find out how you can file this form.

What Does it Mean to Have No U.S. Source Income?

It means you did not receive wages, salary, awards, prizes, or taxable scholarship or fellowship (i.e. the amount of scholarship or fellowship that exceeds the amount of your tuition [consider only your tuition; do not include any other expenses such as books, or room and board]) from a U.S. institution, organization, or company. Financial support, such as sabbatical salary or a scholarship from your home country or an organization outside the U.S., is not considered U.S. source income.

Instructions for Completing Form 8843
