

Aileen Siele

Who's ready to meet another one of our student workers? Today we are excited to introduce you to Aileen!

"Hello! My name is Aileen Siele from Kenya. I am a freshman in Trumbull College, interested in exploring the intersection of health and technology. When I am not doing homework, I listen to podcasts or go for walks around campus. I am looking forward to a great experience at my new home for the next 4 years - an experience that is wholesome, full of fun, learning moments, and meeting new people from different backgrounds. Coming from a tight-knit community, I am excited to be joining groups and organizations that foster the growth of a strong community. It is exciting to be a part of the OISS team this semester and I can't wait to see how it goes.

Be kind. Be nice. Believe. Stay humble. Smile!!"
