

John Taylor

Vanakam! Have you witnessed this beautiful orchestration yet? Yale's 54-bell carillon was cast by John Taylor Bellfoundry in Loughborough, England, and installed in New Haven in 1922. These bells are played by the Guild of Carillonneurs which is made up entirely of Yale students! Next time you hear these beautiful bells on campus, take a moment to appreciate their beauty and look up at Harkness!
