Please review the various fees listed below. All fees should be on separate checks, all made out to “Department of Homeland Security.” Complete the OISS H-1B Fee Form [2] and submit it to Accounts Payable.

Petition Filing Fee

The base petition fee, for the filing of the H-1B petition, is $460. This fee must be paid by the employer.

$500 Anti-Fraud Fee

This “government fraud protection/detection fee” is a one-time fee. This fee is required for any scholar seeking H-1B status with Yale for the first time, even if they are already in the U.S. in H-1B status with another employer. This fee must be paid by the employer.

(Optional) Expedited Processing Fee

Premium Processing is the USCIS expedited processing in which they will adjudicate an H-1B petition (Form I-129) within 15 business days. Premium Processing is not normally necessary with H-1B extensions; speak to your OISS adviser [3] for details. The fee for Premium Processing is an additional $1,440. Due to legal compliance issues, this fee should be paid by Yale, and not the scholar. The fee may be paid by the scholar only if it is the personal request of the scholar and unrelated to employment needs. Additionally, it must be demonstrated that paying the fee will not put the scholar’s annual income below the prevailing wage (see Prevailing Wage [4]). Please note that the total H processing time using Premium Processing is about 2-3 months due to Department of Labor steps that cannot be expedited.

Family Members

Dependent application for H-4 status (Form I-539) for family members (spouse and children under 21 years of age) is $370. This fee covers the spouse and children. This fee may be paid by the department or the scholar.
