Center for Engineering Innovation and Design

CEID seeks to infuse design experiences into student learning through an array of classes and activities. In addition to hosting engineering design courses, the center holds workshops, lectures, networking events, and exhibitions. Student teams and clubs can also use CEID for meetings and project work.

View more

The International Center or OISS

The International Center is home to the Office of International Students & Scholars at Yale (OISS) and a hub for campus life. We hope you will visit us often to take advantage of our many programs and resources available to you.

View More [1]

Office of Career Strategy

The Yale Office of Career Strategy (OCS) offers career advising, professional school advising, employment and internship opportunities, and career development resources. This office works with Yale students and alumni of Yale College, Yale Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and Postdoctoral scholars to clarify career aspirations, identify employment and educational opportunities, and offer advising and support at every stage of career development.

View More

Office of LGBTQ Resources

Yale University is a welcoming community that holistically supports lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer (LGBTQ) people. The Office of LGBTQ Resources at Yale provides campus-wide support, and the OISS is available to provide guidance and answer questions on visas and other matters of concern.
Office of Postdoctoral Affairs

If you are a Postdoc at Yale, the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs will work with you closely from onboarding to departure. They serve the needs of Postdoctoral Associates and Postdoctoral Fellows throughout the sciences, social sciences, humanities, and professional schools; and they work in concert with Yale's many departments and schools to appoint, support, and train the postdoctoral community.

Office of Student Accessibility Services

The primary mission of the Office of Student Accessibility Services (formerly known as the Resource Office on Disabilities) is to facilitate individual accommodations for all students with disabilities throughout the entire University, and by so doing, work to remove physical and attitudinal barriers, which may prevent their full participation in the University community.

The MacMillan Center

The MacMillan Center has numerous interdisciplinary faculty councils, centers, committees, and programs. These provide opportunities for scholarly research and intellectual innovation and encourage faculty and student interchange for undergraduates as well as graduate and professional students. The extracurricular programs include more than 700 lectures, conferences, workshops, roundtables, symposia, film, and art events each year. Virtually all of these are open to the community at large.

International Program Fund (IPF)

The OISS offers funding support for International & Intercultural Groups and Organizations at Yale. These funds are made available by the Vice President and Secretary of the University.
The International Center or OISS

The International Center is home to the Office of International Students & Scholars at Yale (OISS) and a hub for campus life. We hope you will visit us often to take advantage of our many programs and resources available to you.

[1]

Office of Career Strategy

The Yale Office of Career Strategy (OCS) offers career advising, professional school advising, employment and internship opportunities, and career development resources. This office works with Yale students and alumni of Yale College, Yale Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and Postdoctoral scholars to clarify career aspirations, identify employment and educational opportunities, and offer advising and support at every stage of career development.

[4]

Office of LGBTQ Resources

Yale University is a welcoming community that holistically supports lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer (LGBTQ) people. The Office of LGBTQ Resources at Yale provides campus-wide support, and the OISS is available to provide guidance and answer questions on visas and other matters of concern.

[5]

Office of Postdoctoral Affairs

If you are a Postdoc at Yale, the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs will work with you closely from onboarding to departure. They serve the needs of Postdoctoral Associates and Postdoctoral Fellows throughout the sciences, social sciences, humanities, and professional schools; and they work in concert with Yale's many departments and schools to appoint, support, and train the postdoctoral community.

[6]

Office of Student Accessibility Services

The primary mission of the Office of Student Accessibility Services (formerly known as the Resource Office on Disabilities) is to facilitate individual accommodations for all students with disabilities throughout the entire University, and by so doing, work to remove physical and attitudinal barriers, which may prevent their full participation in the University community.

[7]

The MacMillan Center

The MacMillan Center has numerous interdisciplinary faculty councils, centers, committees, and programs. These provide opportunities for scholarly research and intellectual innovation and encourage faculty and student interchange for undergraduates as well as graduate and professional students. The extracurricular programs include more than 700 lectures, conferences, workshops, roundtables, symposia, film, and art events each year. Virtually all of these are open to the community at large.

---

International Program Fund (IPF)

The OISS offers funding support for International & Intercultural Groups and Organizations at Yale. These funds are made available by the Vice President and Secretary of the University.

---

Source URL: https://oiss.yale.edu/life-at-yale/campus-life/campus-resources

Links:
[1] https://oiss.yale.edu/about/international-center
[2] https://oiss.yale.edu/programs-events/international-programming-fund
[4] https://ocs.yale.edu/
[5] https://lgbtq.yale.edu/
[6] https://postdocs.yale.edu/
[7] https://rod.yale.edu/
[8] https://macmillan.yale.edu/