

Fundraiser for Flood Devastation in Valencia, Spain

November 5, 2024

In the wake of the devastating floods in the eastern region of Spain on October 29, we would like to express our deepest sympathy and concern for our students, scholars, staff, and alumni from the area. Learn more about the situation here. [1] Several of our students from Spain have reached out to coordinate fundraising efforts, so we are sharing some information on their behalf if you would like to support.

Ways to donate:

Resources At Yale

Yale has resources in place to aid the campus community in times of tragedies like the current ones.

- Any student, scholar, or staff in need of support can contact Mental Health and Counseling [5] at Yale Health, where assistance is available around the clock. The telephone number is (203) 432-0290 during business hours and for urgent concerns after hours.
- The Chaplain's Office [6] (Old Campus, Bingham Hall, Entryway D; (203) 432-1128) is also among the resources available to all members of our community.
- Of course, our doors at OISS are also open at 421 Temple St or by phone at (203) 432-2305) to anyone who needs support.

If you have been directly affected by these recent events and need assistance from the University, please contact Ozan Say, Director of OISS at ozan.say@yale.edu [7] or (203) 432-2305.
