Stay safe during winter break and follow these tips [1] from Yale Public Safety. Unfortunately, crime such as robberies and thefts increase slightly during the holiday season. Please visit the Yale Public Safety website [2] and read these tips below to stay safe!

- Take care of your property and lock your room/place of residence when you leave.
- Take valuable items with you for the holiday.
- Take your laptop with you - you shouldn't leave it unattended while you travel.
- Be aware of your surroundings while walking during evening hours.
- Travel smart and inform your family or friends of your plans.
