Join Our ISPY Groups This Fall!

November 3, 2025

International Spouses and Partners at Yale (ISPY) is a long-running, active community at OISS. There are currently 10 active groups covering a diverse range of topics and interests, such as cooking and culinary art, financial literacy and self-help, Chinese painting, and baby playgroups. All ISPY community members are welcome to participate in one or multiple groups.

All ISPY groups are led by volunteer leaders from the ISPY community. It has been a fantastic way to make new connections, share your crafts and passions, and take ownership of this community project. OISS provides logistical and budgetary support to the ISPY groups. If you are interested in starting your own ISPY group, you are more than welcome to contact charlie.lee@yale.edu [1].

Please check out our current ISPY program offerings [2], and we are looking forward to having you at one of our ISPY groups' gatherings.
