Staying in New Haven this Summer? Come Work with OISS!

May 10, 2022

Are you an undergraduate student that will be in New Haven this summer? Come work with OISS for a few hours each week!

We are currently seeking 2-3 students to help us cover the OISS front office and provide friendly and customer-oriented services to our international students and scholars!

In addition to greeting visitors, answering phone calls, and assisting OISS staff with projects, you will also be working on projects to help organize OIS, the Orientation for International Students in Yale College.

The schedule is flexible, but we are looking for someone that can work between the hours of 9am-5pm, Mondays-Fridays. Each student will likely work 8-15 hours a week (maximum hours is flexible).

If you are interested, please apply through the Yale Student Employment website [1].

Student Employment Reference Number: 1678
