Yale Public Safety Announcement

Message sent on August 20, 2020

To the Yale Community,

I write to make you aware of a robbery that occurred last night. Although it took place outside the campus area, near Canner and Orange Streets, one of the people robbed is a member of the Yale community.

This is the third robbery in the East Rock area in two days. Yale Public Safety is working collaboratively with the New Haven police on these incidents. If you have any information regarding this incident, please call the New Haven Police at (203) 946-6316 or Yale Police at (203) 432-4400.

If you have any information regarding this incident or have other safety concerns, please call the Yale Police at 203-432-4400 or send an anonymous text tip through our LiveSafe app.

Register for LiveSafe [2].

For more crime prevention and safety tips please visit the Stay Safe on Campus page [3] on It's Your Yale. As a general reminder, it is important to maintain awareness of your surroundings. Avoid displaying valuables such as cash or portable electronic devices. It is also a good idea to note the location of blue phones along your route.

The Yale Police provide services and information for crime victims which can be accessed by calling 203-432-4400.

Sincerely,

Ronnell A. Higgins
Director of Public Safety and Chief of Police
