Language Conversation Groups

About the Language Conversation Groups

OISS hosts a number of language groups that meet at the International Center weekly. The purpose of these groups threefold:

- to create a community of people based in language interest,
- to foster cross-cultural exchange,
- and to provide a welcoming space where people can learn at their own comfort.

They are meant to provide a way to practice language skills that have already been acquired elsewhere.

So, whether you are new to Yale and New Haven, or you’ve been here for a while, we welcome all members of the Yale community to come participate in our groups. You don’t have to be a native speaker, or highly fluent, all you need is the desire to connect with other people through language.
