Language Conversation Groups

Important Note:
Please note that all language groups will be meeting virtually or off-campus this fall.

About the Language Conversation Groups
OISS hosts a number of language groups that meet at the International Center weekly. The purpose of these groups threefold:

- to create a community of people based in language interest,
- to foster cross-cultural exchange,
- and to provide a welcoming space where people can learn at their own comfort.

They are meant to provide a way to practice language skills that have already been acquired elsewhere.

So, whether you are new to Yale and New Haven, or you’ve been here for a while, we welcome all members of the Yale community to come participate in our groups. You don’t have to be a native speaker, or highly fluent, all you need is the desire to connect with other people through language.

Chinese Conversation Group
Join us for a Chinese Conversation group that provides a relaxing environment to have a conversation in Mandarin Chinese. People of all skill levels are welcome, including beginners, experts, native speakers, and everyone in between. Please come join us! You can improve your Chinese and learn more about China and Chinese culture by discussing a variety of topics. Please contact oiss.chinese@gmail.com [1], find us on Facebook [2], or on Wechat with ID: Yale OISS Chinese Conversation!
