Travel Guidance

COVID-19

There have been many changes to international travel issues. The information listed on these pages outline normal documentation and operating requirements. However, to see details of current travel bans and other issues please go to our Current Travel Restrictions page. [1] To monitor U.S. embassy closings or limited access please use the U.S. State Department website. [2]

On August 25th the State Department announced [3] that consulates can waive the interview requirement for those who have a visa that has been expired by 24 months or less. This provision is set to expire on 12/31/2020.

The information below is grouped according to travel related issues. You can also view visa specific travel information by going to the Immigration page and looking up travel information for F-1 students [4], [5], J-1 Exchange Visitors [6] and H-1B employees [7].

Leaving and Re-Entering the U.S.

Whether you are traveling to the U.S. for the first time or during your stay at Yale, review the information below carefully.

View More [8]
Traveling Within the U.S.

Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regulations requires you to have your valid passport with you at all times.

View More [9]

I-94 Record

Your I-94 record (also known as the “Arrival/Departure Record”) is an extremely important immigration document. Please make sure you have a copy in print, on your phone or computer. Click here for more information.

[10]

Hub Page View:
Leaving and Re-Entering the U.S.

Whether you are traveling to the U.S. for the first time or during your stay at Yale, review the information below carefully.

Traveling Within the U.S.

Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regulations requires you to have your valid passport with you at all times.
I-94 Record

Your I-94 record (also known as the “Arrival/Departure Record”) is an extremely important immigration document. Please make sure you have a copy in print, on your phone or computer. Click here for more information.