

For Scholars

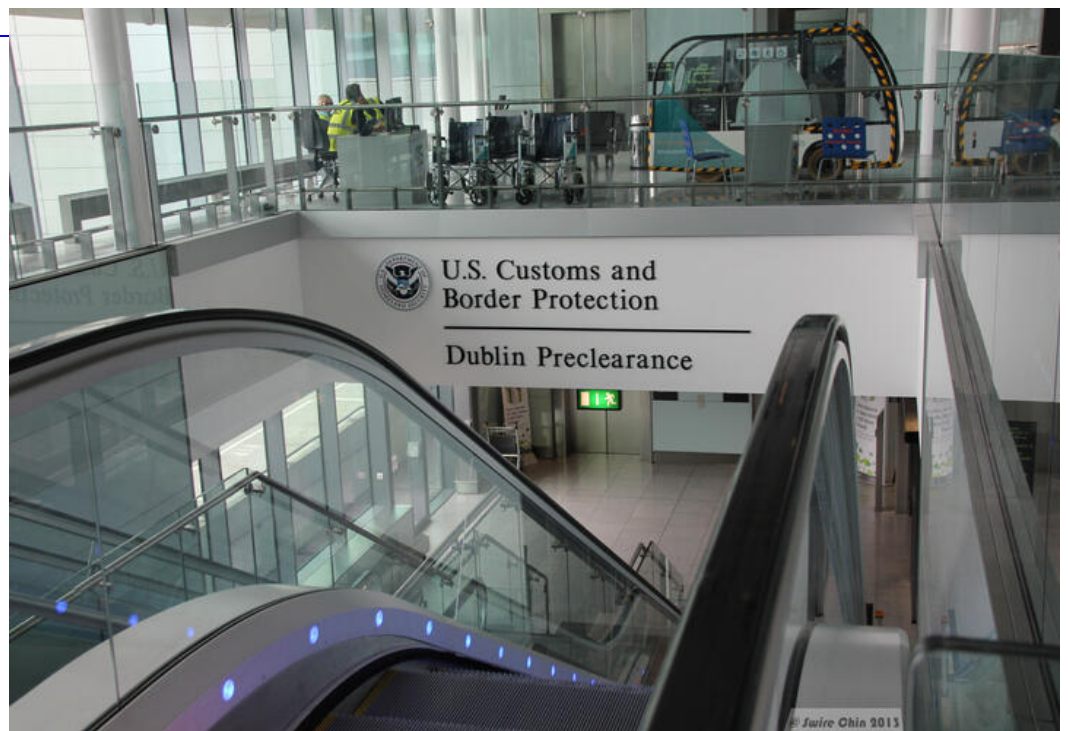

International travel requires planning, attention to details and requirements, and access to resources.

The information below is grouped according to the direction of your travel. You can read the relevant section depending on whether you are traveling to, within, or outside the U.S.

We also have a general section on visas below. If you wish, you can also view visa specific travel information by going to the Immigration page and looking up travel information for J-1 Exchange Visitors [1] and H-1B employees [2].
